Joseph B. Hayek and Suresh Krishna Join Apogee Enterprises’ Board of Directors

August 5, 2026

MINNEAPOLIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Aug. 5, 2026-- Apogee Enterprises, Inc. (Nasdaq: APOG), a leading provider of architectural building products and services, as well as high-performance coated materials used in a variety of applications, announced today that its Board of Directors has elected Joseph B. Hayek, President and Chief Executive Officer of Worthington Enterprises, Inc., and Suresh Krishna, President and Chief Executive Officer of Proto Labs, Inc., as independent directors, effective August 5, 2026. The appointments expand the Board from six to eight directors.

“The Board regularly evaluates the mix of skills, experience and perspectives needed to support Apogee’s long-term strategy,” said Mark Pompa, Lead Director of Apogee. “Following a comprehensive search, we are delighted to welcome Joe and Suresh, whose leadership and operating experience complement the Board’s existing strengths and position us well for the future.”

“We are pleased to welcome Joe and Suresh to Apogee’s Board of Directors,” said Don Nolan, Chief Executive Officer and Executive Chair of Apogee. “Combined, Joe and Suresh bring extensive public company CEO experience, along with deep expertise spanning operations, manufacturing, supply chain and technology. Their leadership experience and strategic perspectives will further strengthen our Board as we continue to execute our strategy, serve our customers and create long-term value for our shareholders.”

Mr. Hayek has served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Worthington Enterprises, Inc. since November 2024. Previously, he served as Chief Financial and Operating Officer of Worthington Enterprises following the December 2023 separation of Worthington Industries into Worthington Enterprises and Worthington Steel. From 2018 through 2023, Mr. Hayek served as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Worthington Industries, where he helped lead the development and execution of the company’s strategic separation and other growth initiatives.

Earlier in his career at Worthington, Mr. Hayek served as Vice President and General Manager of the company’s oil and gas equipment business and as Vice President of Mergers & Acquisitions and Corporate Development. Before joining Worthington, he was President of PCM/Sarcom and held executive leadership positions in corporate development and investor relations. Prior to PCM, he worked in investment banking with Raymond James and Wachovia.

Mr. Hayek is a member of the board of Catholic Social Services. He previously served on the board of trustees of the Community Shelter Board. Mr. Hayek earned a bachelor’s degree from Miami University and an MBA from Duke University, where he was named a Rollins Scholar.

Mr. Krishna has served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Proto Labs, Inc. since May 2025. Prior to joining Proto Labs, he served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Northern Tool + Equipment from 2020 through 2024. From 2016 through 2020, he served as Senior Vice President and Chief Operations and Supply Chain Officer of Sleep Number Corporation.

Earlier in his career, Mr. Krishna held various leadership positions with Polaris Industries, including Vice President, Europe, Middle East & Africa and Vice President, Global Operations & Integration.

Mr. Krishna currently serves on the Boards of Directors of Oppidan Investment Company and the National Association of Manufacturers and on the Global Advisory Board of the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University and the Board of Advisors of the Carlson School of Management at the University of Minnesota.
